TIG Insurance Company)

v.	Case No. 0 7 CH	3862 5
Global Reinsurance Corporation of America	,)) Defendant.))

COMPLAINT FOR DECLARATORY JUDGMENT AND MONEY DAMAGES

Now comes the plaintiff, TIG Insurance Company ("TIG"), by and through its attorneys, LOVELLS LLP, and for its Complaint against defendant Global Reinsurance Corporation of America ("Global") as successor-in-interest to Constitution Reinsurance Corporation ("Constitution Re"), alleges as follows:

1. This case concerns defendant Global's failure to honor numerous reinsurance agreements that its predecessors issued to TIG (the "Reinsurance Agreements"). Those Reinsurance Agreements contain contractual provisions requiring Global to indemnify TIG for a portion of the "expenses" that TIG incurs in connection with claims under policies issued by TIG. Global has violated those coverage obligations. TIG has incurred millions of dollars in litigation expenses in connection with efforts by TIG's policyholder to obtain insurance coverage from TIG. Although Global is properly responsible to cover over $1,340,000 of those past "expenses," as well as such expenses incurred in the future, Global refuses to reimburse TIG for any such expenses. Accordingly, TIG brings this action to obtain a declaration regarding Global's coverage obligations and to recover the sums owed to TIG pursuant to the Reinsurance Agreements.

THE PARTIES

- 2. Plaintiff TIG is a California corporation with its principal place of business in New Hampshire. TIG is the legal successor-in-interest of certain of the liabilities of several other insurance companies, including International Insurance Company ("IIC), International Surplus Lines Insurance Company ("ISLIC"), and The North River Insurance Company ("North River") (collectively referred to as "TIG"). IIC, ISLIC and North River were the original parties that entered into the Reinsurance Agreements.
- 3. Defendant Global is a reinsurance company domiciled in New York and with its principal place of business in New York City. Global was voluntarily placed into runoff on August 2, 2002 and no longer underwrites or issues new insurance or reinsurance agreements. Global is the legal successor-in-interest to the rights and obligations under the Reinsurance Agreements, which were originally issued by Constitution Re.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

- 4. The court has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 735 ILCS §5/2-209. Among other reasons, IIC and ISLIC were domiciled in Illinois throughout much of the period relevant to this Complaint, including at the time the Reinsurance Agreements were issued. Their headquarters and underwriting operations were in Cook County. The North River contracts at issue in this case were assumed in 1993 by IIC, an Illinois company. Global transacts business within Illinois and it has issued reinsurance contracts and coverage to the Illinois companies involved in this case. Further, the performance of the Reinsurance Agreements has been substantially connected with the State of Illinois over the course of many years.
- 5. Venue is proper in this court pursuant to 735 ILCS §5/2-101 in that several transactions or critical portions of the transactions from which this cause of action arise occurred in Cook County, Illinois.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

- 6. This Complaint concerns insurance and reinsurance obligations assumed in the 1970s and 1980s. Throughout that period, TIG (through its predecessors) was engaged in the business of providing various commercial property and casualty insurance coverages to corporations and commercial entities. TIG typically provided excess coverage, i.e., excess of underlying insurance or a self-insured retention of the policyholder.
- 7. As is typical in the insurance industry, for various reasons, TIG decided to purchase reinsurance protection to cover a portion of the insurance liabilities that TIG had assumed under the policies it had issued.
- Reinsurance is an insurance contract issued to an insurer. The insurer purchasing the reinsurance is known as the "ceding insurer" or "cedent." TIG is thus the "ceding company" in this instance. A reinsurance contract provides a right of reimbursement when the cedent incurs losses or expenses by making payments or by participating in proceedings to resolve claims under insurance policies it has issued to others. The typical reinsurance agreement requires the cedent to pay its reinsurer a portion of the premiums collected from the insurance policies covered by the reinsurance agreement; in turn, the reinsurer is obligated to indemnify the ceding company for its agreed share of the claims and expenses incurred by the ceding company in connection with its policies.
- 9. From 1974 through 1985, TIG purchased reinsurance protection from Global on numerous occasions. A list of the relevant Reinsurance Agreements, including dates of coverage, limits of liability, and the identity of the underlying policyholders, is set forth as Exhibit A, which is incorporated herein by reference. In addition, a copy of each such Reinsurance Agreement in TIG's possession is incorporated and attached hereto as Exhibits B through Y.

- Although many of the Reinsurance Agreements contain slightly different terms and conditions, at their core, all of them provide that Global was entitled to receive a share of the premiums that TIG received from its policyholders under reinsured policies. In turn, the Reinsurance Agreements all obligate Global to indemnify TIG for its specified share of claims and expenses incurred by TIG pursuant to the reinsured policies.
- 11. There is no dispute in this case regarding premium. In fulfillment of its contractual obligations, TIG has paid to Global all of the premiums properly due and owing to Global under the Reinsurance Agreements. Global has accepted and retained those premiums for its benefit.
- 12. In contrast, Global has failed to honor its contractual obligation to reimburse TIG for "expenses" it has incurred in connection with the reinsured policies issued by TIG.
- 13. Each of the Reinsurance Agreements contains substantially the following language regarding Global's obligation to cover a portion of TIG's expenses:

"All loss settlements made by the Company, provided they are within the terms and conditions of the original policy(ies) and within the terms and conditions of this Certificate of Reinsurance, shall be binding on the Reinsurer. Upon receipt of a definitive statement of loss, the Reinsurer shall promptly pay its proportion of such loss as set forth in the Declarations. In addition thereto, the Reinsurer shall pay its proportion of expenses (other than office expenses and payment to any salaried employee) incurred by the Company in the investigation and its proportion of court costs and interest on any judgment or award, in the ratio that the Reinsurer's loss payment bears to the Company's gross loss payment. If there is no loss payment, the Reinsurer shall pay its proportion of such expenses only in respect of business accepted on a contributing excess basis and then only in the percentage stated in Item 4 of the Declaration in the first layer of participation."

Constitution Re Certificate of Reinsurance, Certificate No. 64677; Section E (emphasis added). With regard to the last sentence of the provision quoted above, all of the Reinsurance Agreements are known as "contributing excess" agreements.

14. Over the years, TIG's policyholders have asserted various claims for coverage under the reinsured policies. Pursuant to its duties to its policyholders, after receiving notice of claims, TIG has performed an investigation of each claim to determine whether and in what amount it should be paid. Where TIG has determined that claims are covered, they have been paid, and the losses and expenses incurred by TIG have been ceded to Global.

- decisions by TIG that their claims (or portions thereof) were outside the scope or limits of coverage afforded by TIG's policies. Accordingly, TIG's policyholders initiated declaratory judgment actions, seeking a declaration that TIG was obligated to provide the requested coverage. Accordingly, TIG was forced to incur expenses investigating, defending, and responding to those coverage claims. On other occasions, TIG sought to obtain an affirmative declaration that losses at issue were not covered.
- determinations inured to the mutual benefit of TIG and Global. To the extent that TIG was successful in establishing that its policyholders' claims were improper, inflated, or outside the scope or limits of coverage, such a result reduced the amount of loss that Global was obligated to pay. TIG's actions also were necessary and proper to ensure that only covered losses were paid under its policies, a course of action that benefited Global as TIG's reinsurer.
- 17. The expenses TIG incurred in connection with its policyholder's claims for coverage are expenses covered by the plain language of the Reinsurance Agreements. Accordingly, Global is obligated to indemnify TIG for its specified percentage of those expenses.
- 18. After incurring expenses in connection with its policyholder's assertions of coverage, TIG has submitted requests to Global for reimbursement. Pursuant to the terms of the Reinsurance Agreement, TIG consistently invoiced Global for its proportionate share of those expenses as they were incurred, the remainder of which were borne by TIG. Global has refused to pay any such expenses.

19. TIG has incurred declaratory judgment coverage action expenses in connection with (among others) five major policyholders: Beecham, Inc., Combustion Engineering, Inc., the Warner Lambert Company, Rockwell International, and Shell Oil Company. TIG has submitted requests to Global for reimbursement totaling $1,340,564 in connection with TIG's expenses incurred in coverage actions with those five policyholders. A breakdown of the specific amounts billed by TIG to Global on each of those policyholder accounts is as follows:

Beecham, Inc.	$ 84,750.60
Combustion Engineering	$ 200,968.22
Warner Lambert	$ 899,864.99
Rockwell International	$ 94,069.26
Shell Oil	$ 60,911.33
TOTAL	$ 1,340,564.40

20. TIG has made repeated efforts to obtain Global's compliance with its contractual obligations. After years of discussions and negotiations regarding the issue, on November 26, 2007, TIG sent a final demand for payment. In that letter, TIG notified Global that it would initiate legal proceedings against Global if Global did not accept its obligations and indemnify TIG by December 21, 2007. Despite that demand, Global has continued to deny its obligations.

COUNT I

DECLARATORY JUDGMENT

- 21. TIG hereby re-alleges Paragraphs 1 through 20 as though fully set forth herein.
- 22. TIG has fully performed its obligations under the Reinsurance Agreements.
- 23. Despite repeated demands, Global has failed to honor its obligation to reimburse TIG for its expenses incurred in coverage actions with TIG's policyholders. Further, Global refuses to cover such expenses incurred by TIG in the future.
- 24. Each Reinsurance Agreement constitutes a separate "contract or other written instrument" that is the subject of an actual controversy between TIG and Global. Pursuant to 735 ILCS 5/2-701, TIG is entitled to a declaration establishing its rights and Global's obligations under the Reinsurance Agreements.

WHEREFORE, plaintiff TIG respectfully requests the following relief:

- (A) A declaration that the provisions in the Reinsurance Agreements between TIG and Global regarding Global's obligations to indemnify TIG for its proportionate share of "expenses" includes coverage for expenses incurred by TIG in connection with declaratory judgment or coverage actions between TIG and its policyholders;
 - (B) Costs pursuant to 735 ILCS 5/2-701(e); and
 - (C) Such other and further relief as may be just and proper.

COUNT II

BREACH OF CONTRACT

- 25. Plaintiff TIG hereby re-alleges paragraphs 1 through 24 as though fully set forth herein.
 - 26. TIG has fully performed its obligations under the Reinsurance Agreements.
- 27. Despite repeated demands, Global has failed to pay TIG the amounts properly due and owing under the Reinsurance Agreements.
- 28. Global's failure to pay TIG the amounts owed constitutes a material breach of the Reinsurance Agreements with TIG.
- 29. As a result of Global's material breach of its reinsurance agreements, TIG has suffered financial damages in an amount no less than $1,340,564.

WHEREFORE, plaintiff, TIG respectfully requests the following relief:

- (A) A finding that Global has breached its Reinsurance Agreements with TIG;
- (B) Entry of a judgment in favor of TIG;
- (C) An award of contract damages against Global in an amount no less than $1,340,564;
 - (D) Pre-judgment interest;
 - (E) TIG's costs; and

(F) Such other and further relief that this Court deems just and proper.

Respectfully submitted,

CONTRIBUTING EXCESS The Company's policy applies in excess of other valid insurance, reinsurance or a self insured retention and the limit of liability of the Reinsured applies proportionally to all loss settlements in the percentage(s) set forth in Item 4 of the Declarations.

NON-CONCURRENT The reinsurance provided does not apply to any hazards or risks of loss or damage covered under the Company's policy other than those specifically set forth in the Declarations. The retention of the Company and liability of the Reinsurer shall be determined as though the Company's policy applied only to the hazards or risks of loss or damage specifically described in the Declarations.

DEFINITIVE STATEMENT OF LOSS Shall consist of those parts of portions of the Company's investigative claim file which in the Judgement of the Reinsurer are wholly sufficient for the Reinsurer to establish adequate loss reserves and determine the propensities of any loss reported hereunder.

The Reinsurer will be paid or credited by the Company with its proportion of salvage, that is reimbursement obtained or recovery made by the Company, less all expenses paid by the Company in making such recovery. If the reinsurance afforded by this Certificate is on the excess of loss basis, salvage shall be applied in the inverse order in which liability attaches.

H. The Company will be liable for all taxes on premiums ceded to the Reinsurar under this Certificate of Reinsurance.

Heinsurar under this Certificate of Reinsurance.

I. In the event of the Insolvency of the Company, the reinsurance provided by this Certificate shall be payable by the Reinsurer on the basis of the liability of the Company under the policyties reinsured, without diminution because of such insolvency, directly to the Company or its receiver, liquidator, or statutory successor. The Reinsurer shall be given written notice of the pendancy of each claim against the Company on the policyties) reinsured, hereunder within a reasonable time after such claim is filled in the insolvency proceedings. The Reinsurer shall have the right to investigate each such claim and interpose, at its own expense, in the proceeding where such claim is to be adjudicated, any defenses which it may deem available to the Company or listectiver. Idealdator, or statutory successor. The expense this incurred by the receiver, liquidator, or statutory successor. The expense thus incurred by the Reinsurer shall be chargeable, subject to court approval, against the insolvent Company as part of the expense of liquidation to the extent of a proportionate share of the benefit which may accouse to the Company solely as the result of the defense undertaken by the Reinsurer.

J. The Reinsurer may offset any balance(s), whether on account of premiums, commissions, claims, losses, adjustment expense, salvage or any other amount(s) due from one party to the other under this Certificate of Reinsurance or under any other agreement heretofore or hereafter entered into between the Company and the Reinsurer, whether acting as assuring reinsurer or as ceding Company.

K. Should the Company's policy be cancelled this Certificate shall terminate automatically at the same time and date. This Certificate may also be cancelled by the Company or by the Reinsurer upon not less than the number of days shown in Item 7 except ten [10] days for non-payment of premium with prior written notice, one to the other, stating when thereafter the reinsurance efforded hereby shall terminate. Proof of mailing shall be deemed proof of notice and calculation of the earned premium shall follow the Company's calculation of the terminate and the company's calculation in the terminate and the company's calculation of the terminate and the company of the terminate and the company of the terminate and the company of the company of the terminate and the company of the co the Company's calculation in the use of short rate or pro rata tables.

The terms of this Cartificate of Reinsurance shall not be waived or changed except by endorsement issued to form a part hereof, executed by a duly authorized representative of the Reinsurer.

In Hitness Thereof, CONSTITUTION REINSURANCE CORPORATION has caused this Certificate of Reinsurance to be signed by its President and Secretary at New York, New York but the same shall not be binding upon the Reinsurer unless countersigned by an authorized representative of the Reinsurer.
